LtCol Wallis has held assignments in Asia, Europe, and Latin America. He has studied at the Naval War College, Joint Forces Staff College, and the National Defense University. In the past decade, LtCol Wallis has been primarily focused on Security Cooperation issues in Europe and Latin America. He coordinated NATO sponsored Partnership for Peace exercises with NATO candidate nations in Eastern Europe and he also led training for the U.S. Southern Command's Peace Keeping Operations program, training partner nations to lead U.N. Peace Keeping Missions around the world. LtCol Wallis graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy and has an MA in International Studies from the University of Miami.
