

Lecture
“History of European Integration”

Thursday, September 30, 2010
9:15 a.m. - 10:05 a.m.

Christopher Columbus High School
3000 SW 87th Ave.—Miami, FL 331265

Dr. Michael J. Geary

Fulbright-Schuman Fellow 2010-2011

CUA in Washington DC

Lecturer in History of European Integration

Dept. of History Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences

Maastricht University—The Netherlands

Dr Geary holds a Ph.D. from the prestigious European University Institute in Florence, Italy, and is a First Class honors graduate (summa cum laude) of the National University of Ireland.

Dr Geary's research interests include: Contemporary European History; History of European Integration; Transatlantic Relations; History of the Cold War; EU Institutional Changes since the 1960s; Britain's and Ireland's Relations with the EEC/EU. Other research interests include: Britain and the Thatcher governments during the 1980s; Contemporary European and US Politics; Policy and Decision-making in the EU.

In November 2009, Dr Geary was commissioned to write a Briefing Paper on the role and functions of the European Commission for a member of the second Barroso Commission.

Prior to joining the History Department, he worked at the General-Secretariat of the EU Council of Ministers in Brussels.

Sponsored by:

The Miami-Florida European Union Center of Excellence
 Christopher Columbus High School

