What is the European Union?

- A unique institution Member States voluntarily cede national sovereignty in many areas to carry out common policies and governance.
- Not a super-state to replace existing states, nor just an organization for international cooperation.
- Shared values: liberty, democracy, respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms, and the rule of law.
- Largest economic region in the world.
- World's most successful model for advancing peace and democracy (2012 Nobel Peace Prize winner).
- World's largest donor providing assistance to developing countries.

The Plan for a Peaceful Europe After WWII: Coal and Steel

1951

Six founding countries ( ■ Belgium, ■ Federal Republic of Germany, ■ France, ■ Italy, ■ Luxembourg, ■ the Netherlands) signed a treaty to run heavy industries (coal and steel) under common management in 1951:

The European Coal and Steel Community was born, precursor of the EU.

The Rome Treaties Set the Stage for Further Widening and Deepening

1957

[The signatories are] "determined to lay the foundations of an ever closer union among the peoples of Europe, resolved to ensure the economic and social progress of their countries by common action to eliminate the barriers which divide Europe (...)"

Preamble of the EEC Treaty

Six founding countries expanded cooperation to other economic sectors, creating the European Economic Community (EEC) — or "common market".

Elimination of tariffs* on trade between the six original members achieved by 1968.

* A tariff is a tax on imports or exports

European Commission – Promoting the Common Interest

- 27 Commissioners, representing the European perspective, each responsible for a specific policy area.
- EU's executive branch proposes legislation, manages Union's day-to-day business and budget, and enforces rules.
- Negotiates trade agreements and manages Europe's multilateral development cooperation.

Council of the EU – Voice of the Member States

Council of the EU (Council of Ministers by field, e.g., agriculture, foreign policy, economy)

- EU's main decision-making body, comprised of ministers of 27 Member States, representing Member State's point of view.
- European Council meets at the level of heads of state and government to set the main political direction of the EU.
- Van Rompuy is the official President representing the Council for a 2-year term; but a country "presidency" rotates among Member States every six months.

Herman van Rompuy, President of the European Council

European Parliament and European Court of Justice

European Parliament The voice of the people

- European citizens directly elect members for five-year terms.
- With the Council, passes EU laws and adopts EU budgets.
- Approves EU Commissioners.

(Parliament in session pictured below)

European Court of Justice Upholding the Law

- Highest EU judicial authority.
- Ensures all EU laws are interpreted and applied correctly and uniformly.
- Can act as an independent policy maker and overrule national law in areas (economy, agriculture) covered by the Treaties.

The Euro and the Economic and Monetary Union (EMU)

1986 Single European Act

Sets objective of establishing an internal market

1992 Maastricht Treaty

Sets out how to achieve EMU, lays down convergence criteria

1999 Introduction of the euro

The euro is officially introduced as a virtual currency in Austria, Belgium, Finland, France, Germany, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Portugal and Spain.

2002 Banknotes and coins

Introduction of euro banknotes and coins, replacing national currencies

EMU? Euro? Single Market? Some Definitions...

Economic integration is the cornerstone of the EU

Economic and Monetary Union (EMU) enshrined as an objective in the EU Treaties

17
member states

The euro area – Countries share the euro as their currency, ECB sets interest rates.

27
member states

The single market – elimination of trade and competition barriers; free movement of goods, services, capital and people

27
member states

Enhanced policy coordination – countries maintain control over economic policy, but have to coordinate at EU level

Euro Area ≠ European Union

Of the 27 EU Member States today, 17 have adopted the euro

Austria, Belgium, Cyprus, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, Malta, the Netherlands, Portugal, Slovakia, Slovenia and Spain

What about the other 10?

Denmark and the United Kingdom have opted out and are not obliged to adopt the euro.

Bulgaria, Czech Republic, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Romania, Sweden aim to adopt the euro eventually, when they are ready.

What Are the Benefits of the Single Market?

- + Increased competition
  - → Lower prices
  - → Wider choice of products and services
  - → More jobs
- + Easier travel
- More opportunities to live, work and study in other EU countries

What Are the Additional Benefits and "Costs" of Adopting the Euro?

Price stability and security of purchasing power

Elimination of transaction costs

Price transparency across countries

Elimination of exchange rate risks

Countries can no longer change their interest rate or their exchange rate.

Countries cannot have an independent monetary policy!

How Do Countries Qualify for Membership of the Euro Area?

Countries must fulfill the convergence (or "Maastricht") criteria

Interest rate convergence

Public finance discipline

(low government debt and deficit)

The European Central Bank – managing the Euro

- The European Central Bank (ECB)
  is the central bank for the euro area.
- The ECB's main task is to maintain price stability in the euro area, i.e. keep inflation low.
- This is done by steering interest rates, thereby influencing economic developments (by affecting borrowing and lending by consumers and companies)
- The ECB operates independently from Member State governments.

The European Union and the United States

The European Union and the United States

Barack Obama
President of the United States of America

"America has no better partner than Europe. Now is the time to build new bridges across the globe as strong as the one that bound us across the Atlantic. Now is the time to join together, through constant cooperation, strong institutions, shared sacrifice, and a global commitment to progress, to meet the challenges of the 21st century."

"The relationship between the United States and Europe is the world's strongest, most comprehensive, and strategically important partnership. The United States, and a united Europe – this is really the indispensable partnership."

José Manuel Barroso
President of the European Commission

US and EU – Partners in Global Leadership

- EU and U.S. work together to develop international standards:
  - Fighting terrorism and transnational crime
  - Advancing global trade liberalization
  - Combating piracy and intellectual property violations
  - Spreading benefits of globalization
- EU and its Member States are helping restore peace and stability in Afghanistan.
- EU and U.S. work together in the Middle East Quartet to advance the peace process.
- When the EU and U.S. agree, others tend to follow.

US and EU – Shared Values and Responsibilities

Freedom & Democracy

Support free elections, good governance, human rights, and the rule of law around the world.

Security

Cooperate to fight terrorism, limit the spread of nuclear weapons, and work for global peace.

Development

Together, EU and U.S. provide 80% of global development assistance and an even larger share of global humanitarian aid in times of disaster and conflict.

US and EU – A Dynamic Transatlantic Economy

EU is the most important destination of US exports

EU is the 2nd largest source of US imports

- The EU and the US are by far the two largest economies in the world. They account together for about half the entire world economy.
- EU and U.S. together account for 40% of total global trade (more than $1.7 billion in transatlantic trade every day).
- The $3.75 trillion EU-U.S. transatlantic economy employs 14 million workers on both sides of the Atlantic.
- Since 2001, Europe has accounted for roughly twothirds of total global investment flows into the U.S.
- by far the most significant source of foreign investment in the U.S. economy.
