The EU and Russia Competition and Conflict in Eastern Europe and the Caucasus Lecture by Hannes Adomeit, Fellow German Academic Exchange Service

Tuesday, April 8, 2014 | 3:30 PM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | SIPA 502

Hannes Adomeit is a Fellow of the joint German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) and the American Institute for Contemporary German Studies (AICGS) Fellowship Program in Washington, D.C. He was until December 2007 Senior Research Associate at the Research Institute for International Politics and Security (SWP) in Berlin. Prior to that he was Professor for International Politics and Director of the Program on Russia and East-Central Europe at the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University in Boston and Fellow at the Harvard Russian Research Center. Dr. Adomeit holds university degrees from the Freie Universität Berlin (Diplom) and Columbia University, New York (Certificate in Russian Studies, M.A., and Ph.D. "with distinction"). He has worked with the EU's Conflict Prevention Network (CPN) on EU-Russia relations. Dr. Adomeit has published widely on Russia and Europe, including Putin's Westpolitik, with Rainer Lindner; Die Gemeinsamen Räume Russlands und der EU, with Anders Åslund; Russia versus the United States and Europe or "Strategic Triangle"? (all of which accessible on the SWP website www.swp-berlin.org).

Co-sponsored by the Miami-Florida European Union Center of Excellence and Ruth K. and Shepard Broad Distinguished Lecture Series.

The event is free and open to the public. For more information, please call 305-348-1792.
