Paths of Glory

Film Screening and Commentary

Thursday, November 6, 2014 | 6:30 - 8:30 PM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | CBC 155

Stanley Kubrick's Paths of Glory is among the most powerful antiwar films ever made. A fiery Kirk Douglas stars as a World War I French colonel who goes head-to-head with the army's ruthless top brass when his men are accused of cowardice after being unable to carry out an impossible mission. This haunting, exquisitely photographed dissection of the military machine in all its absurdity and capacity for dehumanization (a theme Kubrick would continue to explore throughout his career) is assembled with its legendary director's customary precision, from its tense trench warfare sequences to its gripping courtroom climax to its ravaging final scene.

Co-sponsored by the European Studies Program, Miami-Florida European Union Center of Excellence, and Department of History.
