One Man Loved Me (2010) | Georgia—Director: Ana Urushadze- Length: 10:28 min

Tina met the love of her life last night. But when he shows up by surprise in her apartment, she is not quite ready to see him....

Silent Dialogue, (2012) | Armenia—Director: Vrezh Madoyan—Length: 6:00 min

How many ways can you give out your cell phone number to an attractive stranger using only body language? Two unfaithful couples are very resourceful as they engage in silent flirtation across a crowded restaurant.

The Letter (2007) | Russia—Director: Matvei Zhivov—Length: 20:00 min

After spending several years as a partisan fighter, Stepan is heavily wounded and rescued by the advancing regular army in the spring of 1944. Healed and sent home, the battle for Stepan is hardly over. A new, different battle will only just begin.

Caspian Bride, (2005) | Azerbaijan—Director: Veit Helmer—Length: 6:00 min

A lonely man searches a garbage dump for usable things. Beneath a pile of rubbish he finds a life-size shop-window mannequin....

Please Call Back Later (2010) | Belarus—Director: Yulia Ruditskaya—Length: 5:00 min

Escaping from her daily routine, a girl travels to an imaginary city of her dreams - Seoul.

Ionna, (2012) | Moldavia—Director: Iulia Puica—Length: 4:00 min

A married woman falls for someone else and will suffer the consequences.

The Night I feel, (2008) | Italy—Director: Daniele Napolitano—Length: 7:00 min

A girl misses her train to Milan and is set to wait overnight in Rome until dawn. However, a chance encounter with a guy changes her plans and the night lights of the capital turn into the background of a tender love story. An extraordinary chemistry made of knowing glances and small gestures fills the few instants that separate them both from the sunrise.

036, (2011) | Spain—Director: Fernando Andrés Parrilla and Esteban Roel García Vázquez - Length: 4:00 min

Only somebody brave may enter the jungle and fight face to face with the most dangerous of men.
