

Miami-Florida Jean Monnet Center of Excellence

European and Eurasian Studies Program

Europe in the Global Space Economy A new frontier for the EU-US partnership

Presentation by Pierre Delsaux, Deputy Director General, Space Policy and Research, Satellite Navigation (Galileo/EGNOS), and Earth Observation (Copernicus), Defense Industries, European Commission

Thursday, Nov. 15, 2018 | 11: 10 a.m. — 12:00 p.m. | FIU—Modesto A. Maidique Campus
Building: Academic Health Center 5 (AHC-5)—Conference Room 300 A (3rd floor)

Pierre Delsaux is Deputy Director General at the European Commission Directorate General for the Internal Market, Industry, Entrepreneurship and SMEs.

After studying Law at the University of Liège, he obtained his Master of Law at Northwestern University, Chicago, in 1983. He was Legal Secretary at the European Court of Justice from 1984 to 1987. He worked in the private sector before joining the European Commission in 1991. He started his career within the European Commission in the Directorate General for Competition.

He was appointed Director responsible for regulating the financial services in 2007. Following this, in 2011, he was appointed Deputy Director General with responsibilities for the Single Market in the EU.

Since December 2015, he has been in charge of the European Commission's space activities: Space Policy and Research, Satellite Navigation (Galileo/EGNOS) and Earth observation (Copernicus), as well as Defense Industries.

This event is free and open to all FIU students and faculty

For more information and to RSVP by Nov. 15th, please contact Christine I. Caly-Sanchez at calyc@fiu.edu

Co-Sponsored by the Miami-Florida Jean Monnet Center of Excellence, FIU, the European & Eurasian Studies Program, the College of Arts, Sciences & Education, the School of Integrated Science and Humanity, the Stocker AstroScience Center, the Department of Physics, the Department of Earth and Environment, the International Hurricane Research Center, the European Student Association, and CSO.