June 19-20, 2017 "Trans-Atlantic Symposium on ICT Technology and Policy for a Smart Society"

The PICASSO project is organizing a "Trans-Atlantic Symposium on ICT Technology and Policy for a Smart Society", planned to be held in Minneapolis on June 19-20, 2017 and hosted by the Technological Leadership Institute (TLI) at the University of Minnesota. The symposium will focus on EU/US collaboration in the ICT topics of the Internet of Things, cyber-physical systems, big data, and 5G networks. Research and innovation priorities in these areas will be covered and we will also discuss cross-cutting policy aspects. Application domains of specific interest include the "smart society" elements of smart cities, smart energy, and smart transportation. Academia, industry, policy makers, and representatives of funding bodies will participate.
