

Miami-Florida Jean Monnet Center of Excellence

European and Eurasian Studies Program

Best Paper Award 2017

The Miami-Florida Jean Monnet Center of Excellence invites you to submit research papers focused on European Union for our 'Best Paper Award,' to enhance the study of the European Union.

What is funded?

As part of our Jean Monnet Center grant, we are in the process of establishing an EU-Knowledge Portal on our website, www.miamieuc.fiu.edu. The best paper award recognizes the best papers substantially related to the EU, and its policies and issues. Submissions will be reviewed by a faculty committee, should have been previously unpublished and be at least 5,000 words long, and should be made available to the Center's EU Knowledge Portal website.

Important information

- There are two awards for graduate students, and two awards for faculty available, at $250 each.
- Graduate students and Full-time faculty at the following institutions are eligible to apply:
 - Florida International University(FIU) • University of Central Florida(UCF)
 - Florida Atlantic University(FAU) • University of South Florida(USF) • University of North Florida(UNF)

For FIU students and faculty, the award will be paid out to support academic and research travel, while for awards made to our South Florida Consortium partners, the award will be paid out as taxable honorarium.

Application deadline:

- Friday, March 3, 2017
- Awards will be announced no later than Friday, March 24, 2017
- Please submit proposals electronically to Christine I. Caly-Sanchez at calyc@fiu.edu.