

The Jean Monnet Chair, in cooperation with the Miami-Florida European Union Center of Excellence, a partnership with Florida International University, and the School of Business of the University of Miami, cordially invites you to a guest lecture:

“The Role of the EU member countries at the United Nations”

When: Monday, October 29, 2007, 4:30-5:30 pm

Where: GB 532, School of Business Administration, Coral Gables Campus, University of Miami

Ambler H. Moss, Jr.

University of Miami, Department of International Studies

For information on the EU Center:
Astrid Boening
ASTRIDBOENING1@aol.com
305.284.3266

Ambler H. Moss, Jr. (B.A., Yale University; J.D., the George Washington University) is Professor of International Studies at the University of Miami. He is of counsel to the international law firm of Greenberg Traurig in Miami. He was founding Dean of the Graduate School of International Studies at the University of Miami and Director of the Dante. B. Fascell North-South Center. He was involved with the negotiation of the U.S.-Panama Canal Treaties, and with their ratification as Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Congressional Relations. He served as Ambassador to Panama from 1978 until 1982. In the career Foreign Service he served in Spain, the U.S. Delegation to the Organization of American States, and as Spanish Desk Officer in the Department of State. He has practiced law in Washington, DC, Brussels and Miami.