

Miami-Florida European Union Center of Excellence

School of International and Public Affairs

The European Parliament and the Enlargement of the EU Lecture by Geoffrey Harris, Deputy Head, European Parliament Liaison Office with the US Congress

Tuesday, January 28, 2014 | 12:30 - 1:30 PM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | GL 220

Mr Geoffrey Harris is currently the Deputy Head of the European Parliament Liaison Office with the US Congress and formerly Head of the Human Rights Unit within the Secretariat General of the European Parliament (Directorate General for external policies DGEXPO). This unit provides the back-up for the sub-committee, a parliamentary body working in the framework of the Foreign Affairs Committee of the European Parliament. The unit provides back-up for all initiatives and aspects of the work of the institution concerning human rights (the President, the Development and External Trade committees and the Inter-parliamentary delegations).

Mr Harris has been an EP official since 1976 and previously was in charge of the European Parliament's delegations dealing with EU enlargement and relations with other neighbouring countries.

Please RSVP by Jan. 27th to calyc@fiu.edu – Tel: 305-348-5949

Sponsored by the Miami-Florida European Union Center of Excellence, European Studies Program, and European Parliament Liaison Office with the US Congress.