

Miami-Florida Jean Monnet Center of Excellence

European and Eurasian Studies Program

EU Jean Monnet Project

The Future of Local Transportation

Thursday, November 3, 2016 | 8:30 AM - 10:30 AM | Greenberg Traurig |
333 SE 2nd Avenue, Suite 4400, Miami, FL 33131 (Wells Fargo Building)

Under the framework of the EU Jean Monnet Project, European transportation experts will meet with the Miami-Dade community at large. This workshop will discuss the pressing transportation issues in Miami. The topics will include mass transit, clean vehicles, smart transportation, tactile internet and quality delivery of services at affordable prices. The need for new and improved highways that can sustain the influx of out-of-town visitors generated by the tourism industry and the increase in our local population will also be discussed.

Presentations by:

- Dr. Atorod Azizinamini, Professor and Chair, Civil and Environmental Engineering, Structural and Bridge Engineering, Florida International University
- Dominique Bertrand, Senior Advisor, CEREMA - Center for Studies depending on the French Department for Transport, Environment and Energy, France
- Alice Bravo, Director, Transportation and Public Works, Miami-Dade County
- Dr. Meryem Simsek, Chair of IEEE Tactile Internet Sub-Committee, TU Dresden Vodafone Chair Mobile Communications Systems, TU Dresden, Germany

Moderator: Danye Aboki, Counselor, Transportation and Sustainable Cities, French Embassy in Washington, D.C.
