Polish Film—In English—Subtitled in Polish

Thursday, May 10, 2018 | 8:00 PM - 9:35 PM | Miami Beach | New World Symphony's WALLCAST
SoundScape Park—400 17th Street (corner of 17th Street and Washington Avenue) - Miami Beach, FL 33139

Join us for this moving film on the lawn in front of the New World Symphony's WALLCAST, a soaring, 7,000-square-foot projection wall that uses striking visual and audio technology. Make sure to bring blankets, beach chairs and a picnic, and get there early so you can set up. Open and free to the Public

Synopsis: The Courageous Heart of Irena Sendler is the inspiring World War II drama about Catholic social worker Irena Sendler (played by Oscar winner Anna Paquin) who saved the lives of 2,500 Jewish babies and young children living in the Warsaw ghetto. Using fake identification to pass herself as a nurse and risking her life, Irena was able to enter and exit the ghetto, enabling her to smuggle the children safety.
