Utilizing soft power in the 21st century

National Security Workshop: Joseph Nye

Friday, January 24, 2020 | Location: CBC 233 | Time: 4:00pm – 5:30pm

Join the Jack D. Gordon Institute as we welcome former Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Security Affairs and renown expert on “Soft Power,” Dr. Joseph Nye who will be speaking about current and future issues in national security

In addition to serving as Assistant Secretary of Defense, Dr. Nye has served as Chair of the National Intelligence Council and currently serves as Harvard University Distinguished Service Professor Emeritus at the John F. Kennedy School of Government. His most recent books include Do Morals Matter?; The Power to Lead; The Future of Power; Presidential Leadership and the Creation of the American Era; and Is the American Century Over?.

This event is being hosted by the Jack D. Gordon Institute for Public Policy in partnership with FIU’s European and Eurasian Studies Program; the Department of Politics & International Relations; the Kimberly Green Latin American and Caribbean Center; and the Mohsin and Fauzia Jaffer Center for Muslim World Studies.
