European and Eurasian Studies Program

The German Presidency of the EU at Mid-Point

By Dr. Ulrike Guérot

Founder and Director of the European Democracy Lab, and Professor of European Policy and the Study of Democracy, Danube University Krems

Thursday, October 22nd, 2020 | 12:00 p.m.—1:30 p.m. | Virtual Presentation

The Jean Monnet Center of Excellence for Comparative Populism, the Center for German and European Studies at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, and the Miami-Florida Jean Monnet Center of Excellence are organizing a virtual presentation on the German Presidency: what has been accomplished and what will remain amid COVID-19, featuring Ulrike Guérot, Founder and Director of the European Democracy Lab.

Prof. Dr. Ulrike Guérot is professor at the Danube University in Krems, Austria and head of the Department for European Policy and the Study of Democracy. She is the founder of the European Democracy Lab in Berlin, a think-tank dedicated to the idea of a European Republic.

Ulrike Guérot has worked in several international think-tanks in Paris, Brussels, London and Washington. Her first book "Why Europe needs to become a Republic! A political utopia", was published in 2016 and her latest work "The new civil war – the open Europe and its enemies", became a bestseller in Germany.
