

Tuesday, August 9th, 2016 | 8:00 a.m.—12:12 p.m. (EDT)

This free workshop will provide you the resources and guidance needed to submit winning proposals to funding agencies like USAID, State Department, JICA, EuropeAid, as well as private foundations. It is designed to provide the proposal-writing skills that will empower NGOs to successfully seek donor funding.

Agenda:

<http://www.ncura.edu/Portals/o/Webinar%20Agenda.pdf>

Who are the participants:

- Humanitarian organizations who are seeking grant funding
- Program development staff who need grant writing training
- Administrators who support organizations' proposal/grant writing process

What are the Learning Objectives:

- How to find out about funding opportunities from USAID, U.S. State Department, JICA, EuropeAid, and private foundations
- What types of projects, organizations, and countries are usually supported.
- What partnerships are required or encouraged.
- What are some unique proposal requirements and restrictions.
- Tips on putting together a winning proposal.
- Sample proposal and templates, including budget planning.

Faculty:

- A. Susan Clarke, Loyola University Chicago
- Jerrold Keilson, American Institutes for Research
- Giuseppe Luca Polizzi, King Abdullah University of Science & Technology
- Jeffrey Ritchie, Lewis University
- Yu Sasaki, Kyoto University (in partnership with Ayako Fujieda)

SIGN UP HERE TODAY

About NCURA

The National Council of University Research Administrators \(NCURA\) serves its members and advances the field of research administration through education and professional development programs, the sharing of knowledge and experience, and by fostering a professional, collegial, and respected community.