2nd Annual
Trans-Atlantic Symposium on ICT Technology and Policy
Washington D.C., Wilson Center—June 18-19, 2018

June 18-19, 2018 | Washington D.C. | Wilson Center
2nd Annual Transatlantic Symposium on ICT and Policy
"Leveraging People, Technology, and Information for a Smart and Connecting Society"

This two-day event in June 2018, jointly organized by the Wilson Center and the PICASSO project, will convene leaders in government, academia, and industry around the theme of leveraging people, technology, and information for a smart and connected society. The symposium will explore key ICT topics for bilateral cooperation, as well as cross-cutting issues including policy aspects and STEM workforce issues. The event will include keynotes, panel discussions, and interactive workshops to facilitate knowledge exchange. Conference attendees will discuss cooperation with a focus on innovative early-stage research in the following areas: Cybersecurity and cyber resiliency strategy, Big Data, Cyber-physical Systems and Internet of Things (IoT), Artificial Intelligence (AI), 5G and Beyond.
