The Program

- NALCAP is an educational outreach initiative of the Ministry of Education of Spain giving American college students and graduates the opportunity to be teaching assistants in Spain in each and every classroom across the country.
- Language assistants will return to the United States with the knowledge of a new language and culture. You can use this knowledge and experience in any path you choose to pursue, whether it be in the field of teaching, business or any other.
- Your time abroad can set you apart from the crowd bringing to the table cross-cultural awareness, maturity and resilience. And knowing another language will bring an added value to your position.

What will you be doing?

- You will be a teacher's assistant under the guidance and supervision of a teacher in the English as a World/Foreign Language program at that school.
- Your tasks will include:
 - Conducting conversation lessons
 - Presenting cultural presentations
 - Attending department meetings
- EXTRA-CURRICULAR activities:

Program Requirements

- Be a U.S. citizen and have a valid U.S. passport
- Be a native-like speaker of English
- Have a basic level of Spanish
- Be a college junior or senior or
- Be a college graduate or
- Have an associate degree or
- Be a community college student in their last semester
- Be in good physical and mental health
- Have a clean background check
- Aged 18-60
