

MIAMI-FLORIDA EUROPEAN UNION CENTER OF EXCELLENCE

FACULTY CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT AWARDS 2012

Application Deadline Extended to Jan. 31st, 2012

The Miami-Florida European Union Center of Excellence seeks proposals for curriculum development awards to enhance the study of the European Union by creating EU-focused courses or infusing knowledge of the EU into university curricula.

Activities funded:

We are particularly interested in broad-impact proposals including, but not limited to:

- Teaching workshops for faculty in professional schools,
- The production of pedagogical materials in support of efforts to internationalize curricula,
- Faculty learning communities,
- Administrative reviews identifying and implementing the cross-listing of courses with EU content.

In addition, we fund faculty efforts to create new courses on the European Union or infuse existing courses with at least 50 percent EU content.

Application:

- Proposals should be no more than 800 words including a budget.
- Full-time faculty at the following institutions are eligible to apply:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Florida International University (FIU) ■ Florida Atlantic University (FAU) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ University of Central Florida (UCF) ■ University of South Florida (USF) ■ University of North Florida (UNF)
---	---
- Two Faculty Curriculum Development Awards of 1,500 Euros

Application deadline:

- ▶ Applications are due Monday, January 16th, 2012—Extended to Tuesday Jan. 31st, 2012
- ▶ Awards will be announced no later than Friday, February 3rd, 2012
- ▶ Please submit proposals electronically to Christine I. Caly-Sanchez at calyc@fiu.edu.